Campaigning Gets Underway As Premier Announces Election Date

EDMONTON — Premier Manning announced Tuesday that the Alberta election will be held Wednesday, June 29. In making the announcement, Premier Manning listed four reasons for choosing the date, a departure from the usual Tuesday voting day.

The reasons were:

1. June 29 is the latest date upon which the election could be held before schools are closed. Country schools are used as polling stations.

2. That date will not conflict with closing examinations for public school students.

3. Wednesday afternoon is a holiday in most Alberta towns.

4. This would permit more persons to vote.

Premier Manning said the government did not want to hold the election any later than that date as the new legislature would need time to hold a special session in which to complete unfinished business before fall.

He said that, for example, jubilee year bonuses for old-age pensioners — $50 has been proposed — should be payable in September, the month of Alberta's golden jubilee celebrations. The election date chosen left time in which the necessary legislation could be completed.

Touching off the election campaign in a radio address two hours after the election date announcement, the premier said the opposition is trying to discredit the government by a series of charges intended to cast reflection on the honesty and integrity of cabinet ministers and Social Credit members of the legislature.

J. S. Proctor, vice-president and manager of the bank, said in Edmonton the cost of the new branch will be about $100,000 when equipped.

Jenny Anderson Becomes Bride Glen Clark

Miss Mary Jenny Anderson, daughter of John Anderson of Boyle, became the bride of Glen Robert Clark, son of Mrs. Ethel M. Clark of Kamsack, Sask., at a spring wedding in Christ Church recently.

Beautiful bouquets of white gladioli decorated the altar for the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Canon E. S. Ottley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white brocaded satin. A headpiece decorated with seed pearls, held in place the bride's fingertip veil of silk illusion, and she carried a nosegay of talisman roses and lily-of-the-valley. Her jewelry was a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Donald J. Burley, sister of the bride, attended the bride, wearing a mauve net and lace cocktail length gown with matching head-dress, veil and gloves. She carried a wrist corsage of pink and white feathered carnations.

Gerald Sansome was best man, and guests were ushered by J. P. Robinson of Camrose and J. M. McKittrick of Red Deer.

Keith Bissell played wedding music and Carlyle Mayes was soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception took place in the Christ Church parish hall. Those pouring were Mrs. M. Mellott of Boyle and Mrs. E. Hutchison of Mort McLeod. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Canon E. S. Ottley.

For travelling on her honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Victoria, the bride changed to a mauve linen suit, pawn ivory shoes and handbag, white hat and mauve gloves, contrasted by her corsage of talisman roses.

Upon returning, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in Edmonton.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Miss Harriet Watson of Calgary, Miss Olive Clark of Regina, Mrs. Frank Scrapek of Kamsack, Albert Wagner and Mrs. M. Mellott of Boyle, Mrs. E. Hutchison of Fort McLeod.

Former President Truman recently suggested that the United States take "the current threats to world peace" to the United Nations General Assembly.

District Dairy Farmers Contribute To Promotion Campaign, June 'Set-Aside'

The Canadian public have, in recent years, benefitted greatly from the commendable initiative of the Dairy Farmers of Canada. This group at their own expense have sponsored an advertising campaign promoting the use of dairy products. The dairy farmers themselves pay for this advertising — one cent per pound butter fat is set aside on all the milk and cream sold in June — the peak production month. This costs the farmer about 25¢ a cow.

One would think the flavor, variety, economy and nutrient value of such products as ice cream, butter, cheese, milk and cream would speak for themselves. Surveys have shown, however, since the Dairy Farmers of Canada started their advertising Canadians have consumed more dairy products. Moreover, Gilbert Macmillan, president of the Dairy Farmers of Canada, points out that the fund is a continuing necessity if producers are to maintain their share of the domestic market. Officials report that in communities where advantage has been taken of the services offered by the national promotions increased sales have been reported.

Wide and intelligent use is made of all advertising media. Exhibits continue to increase in numbers across the country, using material and services of the Dairy Farmers of Canada. Fundamental research into the nutritional value of dairy foods being financed by the Canadian dairy industry at Macdonald College, P.Q. Funds are made available to the Associated Milk Foundations with which to supply milk nutrition material to rural schools across Canada.

In addition to the monthly advertising and promotion schedule, the consumer service provided by the Dairy Foods Service Bureau goes forward each month. There is to be extra monthly butter promotion throughout 1955.

Alberta's contribution has been over $40,000.00 to the June Set-Aside every year since the campaign got away in 1950. (1950 $44,496.68; 1954—$41,220.23). The total for Canada has ranged from $305,158 in 1951 to $366,279 in 1953.

The Dairy Farmers of Canada are to be congratulated, not only on improving their own welfare, but on encouraging the nation to improve their own health by eating highly nutritious dairy products.

Paul Kuzma, after visiting in his home district for two weeks, has returned to Edmonton, where he expects to contact his employers at his old job on an oil drilling outfit.

Cleophas Littlechild is having more than his share of bad luck. Three members of his family have had to have hospital treatment in the last two months. He was receiving hospital treatment himself at Elk Point. Stanley Littlechild had to be taken to the hospital only a few days ago.

Charles Calvert and wife and child passed through the district enroute to Lac la Biche to dispose of their property in that town. They have taken permanent residence at Coal Lake, where Charlie is employed in connection with the Government Air Base, in that locality.

George Bobocel has completed his winter saw-mill operations for the season and is trucking his lumber to customers in the Vegreville-Lavoy area.

All farming operations are in full swing in this district. Some trouble is experienced in the low spots, but seeding has started and farmers are more optimistic of results this year. Good seed is still a problem as last year's crop did not produce seed germination of suitable quality.

John Karpathian, store keeper at McRae has installed an electric light plant and is offering his propane gas system for sale. He will retain part for his stove and refrigerator.

Mike Abramic, former resident in this area, has purchased land in the Ashmont district, and will be farming near his brother-in-law, Tony Sowa.

Henry Thompson has moved back to the farm, which will be his headquarters for the summer.

Steve Pawluk, who was a business visitor here this week, reports much building activity in his home town, Lac la Biche.

High hopes are being held that the six-mile stretch of road between McRae and Boyne Lake will be brought into some semblance of decent travel this year. The new councillor of the St. Paul M.D., Arthur Poirier, has authorized temporary repairs and promises definite construction of this portion in the near future. This part of the Lac la Biche-Spedden road to Highway 28 has been neglected for at least five years. It is the last remaining link of ungravelled road in a Highway project started many years ago.

Breynat

Rev. Father Thomas Pelletier of Breynat will leave on May 30 for Montreal to spend two months. He will be present at the ceremony at which his nephew is being ordained priest.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Duperron have as their guests their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brin of Prince George, B.C.

The Duperron boys, Leonard, Rosaire, Isadore and Raymond, are seeking employment in Prince George, B.C.

Alec Duperron, Marcel Hebert and Sam Parenteau are employed in Drayton Valley for the summer.

Shorthorns Impress U.S. Cattlemen

EDMONTON (BUP)—An American cattleman says the Shorthorn animals raised in the Edmonton area of Alberta are larger than some of the breed elsewhere and impressive in quality.

Albert J. Hamman of Rocky Rapids, Iowa, a fieldman for the Shorthorn world, said in Edmonton the wintering methods here make for rugged cattle.

Hamman was among the group of Canadian and American Shorthorn breeders who inspected the Killbuck herd on the Gold Bar Farm. The tour was a preliminary to the annual bull sale which opens at the exhibition grounds Tuesday.

Other breeders in Edmonton from the United States include J. C. Price of Conrad, Montana, and Henry Martin of Steamboat Springs, Colorado.

THINKING ABOUT PROFITS?

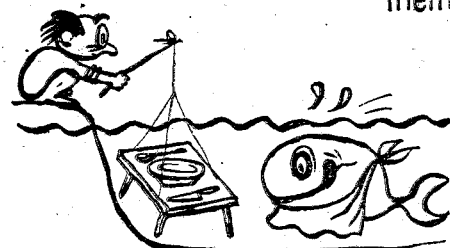

The people who conduct public opinion polls

asked a large number of Canadians this question:

"How big a profit do you think the average Canadian company makes?" Most people thought it was nearly 28% on the income dollar.

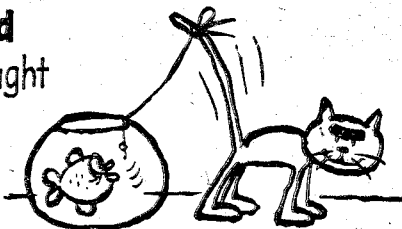

Then these people were asked what profit they thought a company ought to make. Most of them thought it was about half as big as that, or around 16%.

Actually, Imperial's profit last year was less than one-third of what people thought we made, or a little more than 8%. Of this, just over 4% was distributed to Imperial's shareholders.

The rest went back into the business, to help replace worn-out equipment and meet future needs.

News From Other Alberta Towns

NEW EXPERIMENTAL SUBSTATION OPENED AT VEGREVILLE

Rt. Hon. James G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, announces that a new Experimental Substation is being opened this summer by the Canada Department of Agriculture at Vegreville, Alta. It is located in an area of what is known as Solonetz soils—soils with heavy, sticky clay subsoils, poorly drained and difficult for water, air or plant roots to penetrate, with a surface layer of brown to black loam varying from nothing to 10 inches in depth.

There are several million acres of such soil in the 44 million acres of occupied farm land in Alberta and additional acres in Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Solonetz soils of which local areas vary from a few acres to upwards of a township are interspersed with deep or more friable soils.

100 Baby Chicks Lost In Fire

KINUSO — A fire of unknown origin, completely destroyed a combined chicken house and tool shed on the farm of Edgar Hill on May 10. The fire was first noticed at 10 p.m. when the family was about to retire but it was too far advanced to save the building. Hill's loss was 100 baby chicks, seed grain and valuable tools.

Watino Bridge To Open June 15

Flooring of the bridge has been completed and the traffic across is pretty lively. Plans are being made by all points from McLennan to Spirit River for a big day on June 15, when the official opening of the Watino bridge is taking place.

Several "floats" are anticipated for the parade, and a big open-air dance floor is being laid down near Watino hall. Baseball games, etc., are part of the entertainment scheduled.

Phyllis Shandro Contributes To Arts Exhibition

WILLINGDON — It is regretted that in the recent report of the Willingdon Arts and Craft Exhibition the contributions of Miss Phyllis Shandro to the program were omitted.

This was the first appearance on the platform of this sweet-voiced young singer and her two solos, "All Through The Night" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes", were greatly enjoyed by all present and we hope to hear her again before too long.

Phyllis also had several plates on display in the Ceramic Section. Her primitive designs have aroused much favorable comment in other craft centres and the Department of Cultural Arts have purchased several.

In addition to music and design, Phyllis does petit point beautifully.

Wander Inn Cafe Opens

KINUSO — The new "Wander Inn" Cafe in Kinuso opened Monday, May 9, with three cups of coffee.

The "Wander Inn" is operated by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown. They wished every success in their new adventure.

When first broken this type of soil may be productive but the thin top soil under continued cropping becomes low in fertility and organic matter. Where subjected to erosion through wind drifting the top soil is sometimes depleted to a point where the land is abandoned for cropping and is of little value as pasture.

A great deal of interest has been shown in experimental work that can be done to restore this type of soil to production on a permanent basis. The Vegreville Substation has been established to do the necessary research and experimental work to obtain this information.

Soils on the Vegreville farm vary from deep black loam to the Solonetz type, and this provides an opportunity for comparison of results on both soils, on the same farm, under moisture and climatic conditions common to Central Alberta.

The farm consists of a half section, less highway and railway allowances, or approximately 300 acres. Experimental work will be under the general supervision of the staff of the Lacombe Experimental Station, with the necessary help located at Vegreville to carry on the projects.

Experiments are planned to measure the results of both surface and the drainage since this type of soil is usually found in level, poorly drained areas. Crop rotations are planned to find the most suitable cropping plan from the standpoints of soil improvement and production.

Forage crops will be tested to ascertain those that can be most successfully grown to provide suitable pasture crops for areas not under cultivation. Tillage implements will be compared on the basis of their capacity to break up the subsoil and produce proper tilth. Various tillage methods will be undertaken to enable water, air, and plant roots to penetrate the soil, which is a first requirement in the improvement of this type of soil.

Other projects will include methods of checking soil drifting, through incorporating crop residues and the use of forage crops in the rotation; the use of commercial fertilizers and manure; and methods of weed control.

The coming summer at the substation will largely be a preparation period. Drainage and soil surveys have to be made, and most of the land will be summerfallowed to put it into condition for the experimental program, and to reduce the weed population.

Voluntary Labor In Construction Miracle House

VALLEYVIEW — "Miracle House" is the name the promoters of construction like to call the residence beside the Gospel Mission Hall, for the idea was conceived when no money or materials were in sight in the summer of 1954. The committee depended entirely upon prayer, faith, and the generosity of interested friends.

The plans crystallized with the arrival of L. Larson, his wife and family. Voluntary labor and lumber came in. Mr. Larson, himself a carpenter, directed the job; his wife and another lady wielded a hammer with the men. A 24'x26' sturdy house was erected, and the Larson family moved in by November.

Mr. Larson, besides following his trade, conducts services and Sunday School at the Mission Hall.

Car Overturns, Occupants Escape Serious Injury

MUSIDORA — On Saturday an accident occurred four miles west of Musidora in which the car owned by Orest Humeniuk of St. Paul was overturned after it hit a soft shoulder in the highway.

The three occupants, Sonia Humeniuk, Judy Humeniuk and Nadia Bohaychuk were en route to Two Hills. They escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

The occupants of a truck which was following the car at the time, said the car rolled over three times and then came to rest in an upright position. Damage to the car is extensive.

Crushed Under Car, John Galm Dies

HIGH PRAIRIE — John Joseph Galm, 23 years of age, agent for the Alberta Pacific Grain Company here, was accidentally killed on Tuesday afternoon, May 17. Mr. Galm had placed the bumper of his car on the hoist in order to raise the front of the car, and while he was working under the car it slipped, crushing him underneath.

He was alone at the time of the accident, and was found by Al Hardie and Ted Murray of the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator. Mr. Galm came to High Prairie from Calgary when the elevator was opened last fall.

He is survived by his wife, who is a patient in the Calgary Sanatorium and his parents of Alliance. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. An inquest will be held in Magistrate Bissell's office on Thursday, May 19 at 3:00 p.m.

Horses Bolt, Farmer Injured

PARKSIDE — Mr. Julson was run over Saturday by a wagon containing about 50 bushels of wheat. The accident occurred while Mr. Julson was loading grain and his horses became frightened. He is now hospitalized at Hardisty with a broken rib and two fractured bones in one of his legs.

New Type Paint Does Not Blister

WINNIPEG (Special) — Introduction of an exterior house paint that will not blister, heralded as the most revolutionary development in paint performance in modern times, has been announced by H. M. Cullis, president of Marshall-Wells Canadian Companies, Winnipeg. This new paint, to be marketed under the trade name of "Formula 5" is suitable for commercial and industrial uses, as well as private dwelling. In addition to being guaranteed blister-proof, it is also fume-proof, stain-proof, self-priming, and can be used on wood, masonry and other exterior surfaces.

Historically, painting can be traced back thousands of years. As early as 430 B.C., white lead was used by the Romans as a basic paint pigment. Since that time, the quality of house paint has been judged largely by the content of white lead.

Herein lies the secret of Formula 5's non-blistering qualities: the white lead and zinc oxide found in all present-day house paint, have been eliminated and a new inredient which stops blistering has been introduced. The only solution the industry had previously been able to offer consumers was information on how to prevent or reduce the accumulation of moisture. Therefore, to home owners throughout the country, Formula 5 will come as welcome news because blistering caused by excessive moisture has been the most common of all complaints against paint.
